OFFICIAL DISPATCH FROM THE BUREAU OF PUBLIC SAFETY.

January 25, 1933.

To the Commissioner,

Shanghai Municipal Police.

Sir,

This Bureau received a secret order from the Municipality of Greater Shanghai, in which it is stated that the Anhui Provincial Government has communicated with the Ministry of Interior to the effect that the Bureau of Public Safety in Pangpu has reported a seizure of four kinds of reactionary papers entitled "Kuo Houn" (國魂), "Hsin Min" (醒民), and "Min Seng" (民生) Weekly Magazines and the "Manifesto To the People On the Chinese Nationalism Youths Corps' 9th Anniversary Meeting and on the Third Anniversary Of the Establishment of the Pangpu Branch" (中國國家主義青年團加國地志暨幹部會). The Pangpu Bureau of Public Safety besides ordering an arrest of the disseminating criminals at large, has submitted a petition requesting a suppression of the reactionary publication in order to check seditious propaganda.

The Ministry of Interior, in addition to transmitting this request to the Secretariat of the Central Executive Committee of the Kuomintang, has ordered the Municipality to ban the publication of the papers above-mentioned.

As this Bureau is ordered to carry out this prohibition, you are hereby requested to render assistance in this matter.
